

Air 1 has provided many families in my community with a positive, wholesome alternative to the nasty, negative, and immoral music that is played on many of the other stations. This station has become a vital tool for me as a parent and my choice of listening pleasure for myself. Don't let it be taken away, please.